Report of Guest Lecture

Career guidance program for UG students

The Department of Microbiology, in collaboration with the Alumni Association, organized a guest lecture on Career Guidance for undergraduate students on February 29, 2024. Dr. Avinash Laghave, an alumnus from the 2004 PG batch, former Army officer, and current Professor and Head of the Department of Microbiology at ABVGMC, Vidisha, MP, engaged with the students. He discussed various career opportunities in the Armed Forces and emphasized the importance of personality development, a positive attitude, and effective time management—skills essential for success in any profession. His interactive session was well-received by the students.
