Guest Lecture - Safe Blood Practices

Department of Pathology and the Alumni Association of NKP Salve Institute of Medical Sciences & Research Centre and Lata Mangeshkar Hospital organized a guest lecture by their PG alumnus, Dr. Viraj Warbhe, MD Pathology, on 12th June 2025 at Inspire Hall, NKPSIMS & RC and LMH, Nagpur.

Dr. Viraj Warbhe is the Medical Director of Lifeline Blood Centre, Nagpur. During his lecture on “Safe Blood Practices”, Dr. Warbhe shared valuable insights into the proper procedures, guidelines, and safety measures for blood collection, storage, testing, and administration. His presentation stressed the significance of following standard protocols to maximize patient safety and avoid complications related to blood transfusion. Dr. Harish Warbhe, Director of Lifeline Blood Centre, Nagpur was also present as special invitee.

The event was well-received by the attendees, fostering greater awareness and understanding of safe blood practices among future medical practitioners.

The Graduate & Post Graduate students attended the lecture. Dr Mohana Majumdar, Treasurer, Alumni Association, welcomed the gathering. Dr Sajal Mitra, Dean NKPSIMS & RC and LMH, expressed the pride and joy of witnessing our alumni positioned at important platforms. Dr Kajal Mitra, Director Academics & Accreditation appreciated the alumni association for arranging the lecture and motivating students.

The Alumni Association expresses its sincere gratitude to Dr. Viraj Warbhe for his valuable contribution and looks forward to more such educational initiatives.
